CONSECRATION

*to be set apart for God's purpose *sanctifying
[EXODUS 13:1-2, JOHN 17:17]
Exodus 29:33

Why consecrate (set apart) the firstborn?

1. It is a constant reminder for everyone about the redemptive power of God.
2. It is to acknowledge that it is God who owns the Israelites.

The firstborn son represents the family, inheritance, leadership and the future.
So when they consecrate (set apart) the firstborn son, they recognize that it is God who holds everything.

3. Symbolic the whole nation
The firstborn son represents the entire nation of Israel belongs to the Lord. Exodus 4:21-23
4. This is to distinguish between people and animals.

PART 2: KINGDOM PATTERNS ON CONSECRATION

1. CONSECRATION involves a transfer of ownership. (COLOSSIANS 1:13 1 PETER 2:10)
2. The goal and motivation of CONSECRATION is the Kingdom assignment. (ROMANS 5:17 MATTHEW 28:18-20)
3. CONSECRATION is maintained through OBEDIENCE. (JOHN 17:17)

Consecration is a personal decision to listen and submit to the King's expression of His will and orchestration.

PART 3: Further Study on CONSECRATION

A. THE BLESSINGS OF SETTING YOURSELF APART FOR THE KING'S PURPOSE.

1. It refines and restores you. (Purity & Transformation) [1 PETER 1:15-16 1 THESSALONIANS 4:3.HEBREWS 12:14 2CORINTHIANS 7:1]
2. It brings you nearer to the King. [JAMES 4:8 MATTHEW 11:28-29 (contrast: MATTHEW 7:23]
3. It awakens/unlocks your true identity, according to the original purpose of the Creator King. [JOSHUA 24]
4. It activates your God-appointed authority and power. [LUKE 10:19. MATTHEW 28:18-20]
5. It entitles you to divine protection. [PSALM 91:14-16, ROMANS 8:28]
6. The consecrated person finds favor with God and people. [PROVERBS 3:4]

B. THE STEPS AND CONTINUOUS PROCESS OF CONSECRATION

1. Revelation from the Lord, which results in an appropriate Decision
2. Separation from the world, Dedication to the Lord

3. Repeat the process, until it becomes a lifestyle.

James 4:7

C. What happens when a person chooses not to consecrate himself?

1. He remains outside the full benefits and order of the Kingdom of God.
2. He puts himself in a dangerous situation: the impending wrath of God.
3. He becomes spiritually unusable for God's purpose in the Kingdom.

ROMA 5:17, ASND
Dahil sa kasalanan ng isang tao, naghari ang kamatayan, pero
dahil sa ginawa ng isa pang tao na si Jesu-Cristo ang mga taong
tumanggap ng masaganang biyaya at kaloob ng Dios ay itinuring niyang matuwid, at maghahari sila sa buhay na walang hanggan.

1 PETER 1:15-16, AMP
15 But like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves in all your conduct [be set apart from the world by your godly character and moral courage]; 16 because it is written, "You shall be holy (set apart), for I am holy."
