Hermeneutics is the art and science of interpreting Scripture.
In the Kingdom of God, hermeneutics is not just about understanding the text, but discovering the original intent of the King—what God meant when He spoke His Word to His citizens.

Remember:

"It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings."

— Proverbs 25:2
In the Kingdom, God is not hiding truth to confuse people.
He conceals to invite.
Revelation is a reward of intimacy, not a right.
So when you search, study, pray, meditate, ask hard questions—
you are acting like a king, not a servant who just waits for orders.

When we interpret Scripture, we are searching out the mind, will, and intent of the King (God) to apply His decrees correctly in His Kingdom.

👑 Kingdom-Based Principles of Hermeneutics

1. The Principle of Kingdom Context

Always interpret Scripture within the context of the King's purpose and government—not just culture, religion, or tradition.

The Bible is not a religious book—it's a Constitution of a Kingdom.

Every word must be seen in the light of God's original intent: to extend His heavenly Kingdom on earth through man.

Genesis 1:26–28 — The Foundation of Man
Matthew 6:10 — The Prayer for God's Kingdom on Earth

2. The Principle of Original Intent

Ask: What did the King mean when He said this?
Not: What does this mean to me?

God's Word carries the intent of the King, not the opinion of the reader.

Ex. Ambassador carries the message of the Kingdom of heaven not his opinion.

Understanding Hebrew(old) and Greek (new) roots helps uncover that original intent.
- Important of rooting

Ex. Church in greek- Ecclesia

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away."

— Matthew 24:35
Add: mananatili ang original intention ng nag salita

Kingdom principle number 5

- A kingdom is the governing influence of a king over His territory, impacting it with His personal will, purpose and intent, producing a culture, values, morals and lifestyle that reflect the King's desires and his citizens.

3. The Principle of Contextual Interpretation

Interpret every verse in its historical, cultural, grammatical, and literary context.

Avoid "text out of context."

Every verse supports the overall message of the Kingdom — from Genesis to Revelation.

Prescribe or describe
Pre-text / Post-text

4. The Principle of the King's Nature

Interpret the Word according to the character and nature of the King—God is righteous, just, merciful, and holy.

If your interpretation contradicts God's nature, it's not correct.

"God is not a man, that He should lie…"

— Numbers 23:19
- John 14:21 b

God is not a name (Jehovah)
I am who I am (Verse)

5. The Principle of the King's Constitution (Law of First Mention)

When a concept first appears in Scripture, it establishes the foundation for its meaning throughout the Bible.
Example: The word "dominion" in Genesis 1:26 defines mankind's purpose for the rest of Scripture.

6. The Principle of Harmony (Scripture Interprets Scripture)

No part of the King's Word contradicts another.
The Constitution of the Kingdom is perfectly unified; one verse explains another.

"At the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."

— Deuteronomy 19:15

Hebrews 1:2-7

7. The Principle of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Governor of the Kingdom — He reveals the King's meaning to His citizens.

Without the Holy Spirit, interpretation becomes human and religious.

With the Spirit, it becomes revelatory and transformative.

“But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all truth.”

— John 16:13

8. The Principle of Application

Understanding is incomplete until it leads to obedience and transformation. In the Kingdom, revelation demands action — citizens live according to the decrees of the King.

“Be doers of the word, and not hearers only…”

— James 1:22
- Matthew 7:22
- James 2:17
- 1 John 2:3-6

9. The Principle of Progressive Revelation

The King reveals His purpose progressively throughout history — from Genesis to Revelation.

The Old Testament contains the Kingdom concealed.

The New Testament contains the Kingdom revealed.

10. The Principle of Christ as the Central Theme
All Scripture points to the King Himself — Jesus Christ.

He is the Word made flesh, the visible King of the invisible Kingdom.(verse)

John 1:1
John 1:14
Colosians 1:13-15
Isiah 9:6-7

“In the volume of the book it is written of Me.”

— Psalm 40:7; Hebrews 10:7
